INTRODUCING OUR JUDGE

VALERIE GERVAIS (CANADA)

Valerie a Life Member of the CKC has been involved with breeding Irish Setters for over forty years. At this time she is past president of the Tyee Kennel Club and the Sporting Dog Club of British Columbia.

Married with three daughters that all at one time or another were involved in Junior Handling Valerie has attended many dog related spectaculars over the years and was most fortunate to be able to participate in the AKC Institute Seminars for Sporting and Herding Breeds. One of the most exciting assignments was to judge in New York at the Westminster specialty shows prior to the Garden. She began her judging career 20 years ago and now is licensed for All Breeds.

Two trips to Australia and New Zealand have been highlights in her judging career. She still actively breeds and exhibits Irish Setters under the KULANA prefix and won Bred by Exhibitor and a group placement at the Eukanuba shows entitling her dog an invitation to Crufts this year. Valerie spends many hours in her garden and with her husband cruising the Gulf Islands.
